

IMPLANTABLE CHIP UNDER THE SKIN -- NEW TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCES GIVE THE GOVERNMENT UNPRECEDENTED ABILITY TO CONTROL YOU!

New advances in Personal Surveillance bring us closer to the prophesied situation where the Government will be able to keep tabs on each person in the country! No one will be able to hide anymore, a major goal for the coming dictatorship of the New World Order.

The New World Order is coming! Are you ready? Once you understand what this New World Order really is, and how it is being gradually implemented, you will be able to see it progressing in your daily news!!

Learn how to protect yourself, your loved ones!

Stand by for insights so startling you will never look at the news the same way again.

YOU ARE NOW ON

THE CUTTING EDGE

"•We Will Know Who You Are

•We Will Know Where You Are

•We Will Know What You Do

"ABC News recently aired a story about a high-tech inventor who has produced a type of radar device destined to be reduced in size to a microchip. Projected to eventually cost less than fifty cents a copy, the invention, the ABC report claimed and demonstrated, is capable of "seeing" through walls and detecting biological signs of life on the other side such as heartbeat and respiration.." [Emphasis added throughout article]

This new technology is not only shocking, it is downright eerie. No longer will anyone have any privacy against unwarranted and unknown snooping by anyone, Government or private, who has the technology and the resources to spy. Anyone, at anytime, living within their home, can be detected by this technology. Notice that this invention is a "radar device", that it costs only fifty cents, and that is no larger than a microchip. Suddenly, I am reminded of another Bible prophecy which seemingly speaks of a device, probably having to be the size of a microchip which is to be implanted in every person on earth. Remember this verse? Let us quote it for you, below.

"And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." [Revelation 13:16-17]

Notice that this prophecy says that this "mark", popularly called the "Mark of the Beast", is to be implanted

"in" the right hand, or "in" the forehead. We see from this prophecy that the primary purpose of this implanted mark is to make it impossible for anyone to do any business at all, either buying or selling, unless he or she had this implanted device. However, later, in Revelation 14:9-11 and 19:20, we see that the secondary purpose of implanting this device was to worship Antichrist. Read the Scripture below.

"And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." [Revelation 14:9-11]

In these verses, God ties the "worship of the beast and his image" directly to receiving his mark. Notice that God did not refer to this implantable mark as "the" mark, but "his" mark, referring to the Beast, Antichrist and/or his False Religious Prophet.

Then, God warns anyone that takes this mark that they are worshipping Antichrist by taking it, and that they will suffer eternal torment in Hell, as verses 10-11 foretell. Evidently, this taking of the implanted mark will constitute an unforgivable sin, as God states that "whoever" takes this mark will be cast into Hell. Once a person takes this mark into their hand or forehead, they cannot then turn to God and receive forgiveness.

Now, let us return to this most interesting of articles on this new type of "radar" no larger than the size of a microchip. Remember, our interest here is stimulated by the fact that the "Mark of the Beast" must be about the size of a microchip, or it could not be easily implanted under the skin.

In this first paragraph quoted, above, we are most interested in the fact that this new type of radar can detect people and animals inside the building. Therefore, they can detect whether a living mammal is currently inside a building by this device. As interesting as this tidbit of information is, however, we get even more interested a little later on in the article.

"Touted as a significant breakthrough, especially in the area of search and rescue involving bombed buildings and structural collapses due to earthquakes, the device would be able to ascertain the presence of victims invisible due to concrete rubble. The advantage, says its inventor, is that the chip would be able to tell, by the biological signature, if the victim were alive or even whether it was human or otherwise, a dog, for instance."

There is no doubt that this type of technology would be of great value in locating survivors in a disaster situation, such as a fire or earthquake. Rescuers would know precisely which buildings to search, thus locating survivors much more quickly. However, this technology has a HUGE potential to be misused, as we read below.

" Every living biological organism, it is well known, has its own peculiar genetic and bioenergetic signature, much the same as a physical fingerprint. The aforementioned device is capable of taking great advantage of that "bio-fingerprint." Imagine, for instance, the ability to use the microchip radar to first map an individual's biological signature and then deposit the digitized information of that unique signature into a computer database. This could be done, for instance, while passing through the ubiquitous metal detectors in any airport. Once that signature is on file, it is not an unreasonable stretch of logic to imagine an unmarked van carrying the radar chip and a copy of the database passing any home or building with the ability to not only determine that there are people occupying the dwelling, but who they are, and whether or not they should, according to the officials conducting the 'survey', even be there."

Wow! This technology has the capability to record the "peculiar genetic and bioenergetic signature" of each person on each, with which they can identify people as readily as with a fingerprint? But, there is more! When a surveillance team using this microchip technology is aiming their device at a building, they can tell two things: 1) That some people are or are not in the home at that moment; 2) They can tell exactly who it is that is there at that particular moment! They can make this identification by using the "peculiar genetic and bioenergetic signature" on record for that individual. In this regard, did you notice that a person's genetic and bioenergetic signature can be obtained without that person knowing about it. In the instance, above, a person's bioenergetic signature could be obtained as they innocently walked through a metal detector at an airport! Then, finally notice that this report gives the authorities the right to decide if that person should even be in that building! This is the kind of judgments that we would expect from totalitarian governments.

If this is true, then the Federal Government would be able to secretly obtain the bioenergetic signatures of many tens of millions of Americans without them being aware that their privacy had thus been violated! Remember, we are living in the period of time immediately preceding the imposition of the New World Order Government; our current Government leadership is taking us boldly into this One World dictatorship. Therefore, our current leadership would be most interested in identifying all those Americans who might resist the new dictatorial government, on whatever grounds. This new technology would be very useful as it would allow our government, at the moment when our freedoms were being taken away, to very efficiently round up Patriots and anyone else who was deemed to be a resistor. At the moment when these potential resistors were being rounded up, police or paramilitary personnel would not even have to invade the home to find out if the person whom they were seeking was at home. If their surveillance equipment shows that the person whom they are seeking is not home, they would just go on to the next person to be arrested. This ability would lessen the number of home disruptions necessary to round up the potential resistors.

Bill Cooper, author of "Behold A Pale Horse", writes of this coming roundup. "I know from my stint with the Office of Naval Intelligence that these dossiers consist of information collected about American patriots, men and women who are most likely to resist the destruction of our Constitution and the formation of the totalitarian police state under the New World Order. The patriot data bank is constantly updated so that when the appointed hour arrives, all patriots can be rounded up with little, if any effort. The plan calls for this to be accomplished in the dead of night on a national holiday. The most likely holiday is Thanksgiving, when everyone, no matter the religion, race, or creed, will be at home ... MY RECOMMENDATION IS THAT NO PATRIOT SHOULD EVER BE AT HOME OR AT THE HOME OF ANY FAMILY MEMBER ON ANY HOLIDAY EVER AGAIN ..." [Page 116, capitalization was in the original].

Now, this technology provides our dictatorial government in waiting with an even better method in which to keep track of all possible resistors. We cannot help but understand that, if this technology is at the stage where its very existence is now be acknowledged in the media, our Federal Government, both Military and Civilian, has possessed it for some time now. Indeed, this seems to be the case. As with any technological advance in military capabilities, the leadership will set out to thoroughly define the parameters by which the new capability may be used, and in hat types of possible scenarios it may be used. Listen to the next part of our article, then.

"In a publication issued by the Strategic Studies Institute (SSI) of the U.S. Army's War College, entitled, The Revolution in Military Affairs and Conflict Short of War, much reference is made to developed technology aimed at not only detection but tracking and identification. The work, released in June, [1997] is authored by Steven Metz, Ph.D., Associate Research Professor of National Security Affairs at the Strategic Studies Institute, U.S. Army War College and co-authored by James Kievit. The work, published in booklet form, details current problems faced by the military of the world's only remaining super power, and includes a fictional scenario that takes place in the second decade of the twenty-first century -- approximately 2010."

"The Gulf War," the authors submit, "was widely seen as a foretaste of RMA [Revolution in Military Affairs] warfare, offering quick victory with limited casualties. As a result, most attention has been on the opportunities provided by RMA rather than its risks, costs, and unintended side effects." (emphasis added).

We have always maintained that President George Bush repeatedly informed us that the Gulf War was a New World Order war. Further, we have quoted Alice Bailey in her book, The Externalisation of the Hierarchy, to show that the Gulf War, along with the Vietnam War, were planned wars designed to move the world into the New World Order. Now, we learn that the Gulf War was an experiment in a new kind of conflict called, " RMA [Revolution in Military Affairs] warfare". This kind of warfare is a blitzkrieg that annihilates the enemy while limiting the number of "friendly" casualties. My mind is boggled when I contemplate the possibility of waging that kind of war on the American public, perhaps by foreign troops that have been "invited" in to our country, to "aid" us in solving some sort of domestic crisis.

Among those things mentioned as requiring "conflict short of war" is "peace enforcement" and the ability to protect American lives anywhere in the world by keeping very close electronic tabs on their whereabouts and activities. An equally portentous claim, however, is that "behavior modification is a key component of peace enforcement."

I get really nervous when leaders of a potentially dictatorial government begin to talk about "behavior modification". Of course, we have been shouting from the rooftops for years now that a very sophisticated plan is now being used against us, to invisibly and gradually change our values and attitudes on a wide variety of subjects, without anyone being aware of the fact. We call this active plan the Six Step Attitudinal Change Plan, and we encourage you to read NEWS1055, "Review of Six Step Attitudinal Change Plan And How It Is Being Used In America Today", for a thorough analysis of how the entire American public is actively experiencing an "attitude adjustment" with very few people understanding what is happening.

Let us examine a little more of this "behavior modification" which our military is saying is so critical to "peace enforcement". "Behavior modification, by practical U.S. definition, encompasses everything from inducing a slight change in ideas to having no behavior at all. The latter is commonly referred to as death."

"In the near future every American at risk could be equipped with an electronic individual position locator device (IPLD). The device, derived from the electronic bracelet used to control some criminal offenders or parolees, would continuously inform a central data bank of the individuals' locations. Eventually such a device could be permanently implanted under the skin, with automatic remote activation either upon departure from U.S. territory (while passing through the security screening system at the airport, for example) or by transmission of a NEO alert code to areas of conflict. Implantation would help preclude removal of the device (although, of course, some terrorists might be willing to remove a portion of the hostage's body if they knew where the device was implanted). The IPLD could also act as a form of IFFN (identification friend, foe or neutral) if U.S. military personnel were equipped with appropriate challenge/response devices. Finally, such a device might eventually serve, like Dick Tracy's wrist radio, as a two-way communication channel permitting the NEO notification to be done covertly."

Wow! All of a sudden, we find ourselves talking about implanting a device under the skin that can emit a tracking signal from the person in whom it is transplanted! All of a sudden, this news takes us back to the subject of the End of the Age. All of a sudden, we realize that our military probably does have a thorough plan to use this newest technology to identify and to track each person. In Seminar 2, we stated that the human version of the animal implantable chip now being used in the Veterinarian Industry would be an active transmitter as well as a passive transponder. We had several people write in, offering their "professional" opinion that such technology simply was not possible. But, these professionals evidently did not know of this new, leading edge technology!

In the coming Age of Antichrist, also known as the New World Order, the Antichrist will want each person marked with an implantable chip for several reasons: 1) To show how much loyalty and love each person has for him; the taking of this implantable chip will be presented to every one in a religious context, so that everyone knows they are professing worship to him when they take this chip. Great propaganda will undoubtedly be presented to convince everyone of the economic benefits of taking this chip, but everyone will understand that they are worshipping The Christ [Antichrist] when they take this chip. 2) To completely move the entire world into the planned cashless society of the New World Order; 3) To control each man, woman, and child in a manner that has never been possible before. This control would be implemented indirectly and directly. When you purchase product using this implantable chip, which will be scanned at the cash register, the exact purchase, time of day, and location will be registered in some master computer. Therefore, the government will know where you were. Then, since this human implantable chip will be an active transmitter, the signals of which will probably be bounced off either transmitter dishes on the ground or satellites, your daily wanderings will be recorded. If someone wants to track you, they would only have to enter your Personal Identification Number -- planned to be 18 digits [6+6+6] -- into a master computer, asking the computer to zero in on your transmissions. Government officials could potentially know when you are turning off the freeway and at what exit!

Believe me, when this new system is fully functional, the Government will know so much about every person that underworld crime will be stopped dead in its track. The "underground economy", where people deal only in cash that cannot be traced, will be stopped dead in its tracks. No longer will people be able to not report income to the IRS, because all income, and all transactions, will be electronically recorded! The Government should be able to realize many tens of billions of dollars in additional revenues once this new system is thoroughly in place.

Since we are speaking of implantable chips, this next news story is of great interest. As we stated above, implantable chips would have to be read by a special scanner created just for this purpose. Veterinarians that now use this system of implantable chips with animals use a scanner to call up information about the animal, such as owner and past medical history. This scanner can also be used to update the information concerning the animal, both medical treatment and owner information updates. Obviously, the same type of scanner would have to be in place at all cash registers of all retailers in the world. These scanners would have to call out the Personal Identification Number of each shopper, and then be able to withdraw the funds from the shopper's cashless account. Every retailer in the country would have to possess this type of hand and forehead scanner, which probably would be a hand wand rather than the fixed type of scanner in use today, where groceries are passed over. From the largest chain to the smallest Mom and Pop store, every retailer would have to possess this type of scanner. And, the lead time to get such ubiquitous scanners into the marketplace would logically be several years. With this in mind, consider this following excerpt from a Christian newsletter.

"Special Note: I have just returned from the K-Mart Store in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, and was shocked to see hand scan devices installed at the check out areas. These devices are about 18 inches square with rounded edges and have an imprint of a hand with a cross hair positioned directly over the back of the imprint. The clerk told me it was only an inventory control device to be used in the near future. An overheard conversation revealed, however, that it is a new scanning device ... I saw this with my own eyes ... it is a scanning device with a hand on it with a precision cross-hair directly on the back of the hand. Perhaps your K-Mart has it also. Go and see for yourself. Pray even more!" ["Last Trumpet Newsletter", VOL. XVI, ISSUE X, OCTOBER, 1997, Page 4]

Thus, the ultimate "behavior modification" which our military is seeking is to convince all Americans that they should enthusiastically wear this implantable chip. New Age writings -- parallel to Bible prophecy -- make it very clear that, soon after Antichrist arises, he will assume political leadership of the world's newly organized 10 Super Nations Read [NEWS1002, "NAFTA Fulfillment Of Bible Prophecy", to understand that this critically prophesied reorganization has just been finalized]. Once Antichrist is the supreme leader of the United Nations, he will organize a world-wide Luciferic Initiation, where people will pledge their loyalty and love for him, and will officially join the global witches coven. At this point, each person on earth will be required to receive the implantable chip, knowing they do so as worship of Antichrist.

We are very, very close to this scenario today. Are you spiritually ready? Is your family? Are you adequately protecting your loved ones? This is the reason for this ministry, to enable you to first understand the peril facing you, and then help you develop strategies to warn and protect your loved ones. Once you have been thoroughly trained, you can also use your knowledge as a means to open the door of discussion with an unsaved person. I have been able to use it many times, and have seen people come to Jesus Christ as a result. These perilous times are also a time when we can reach many souls for Jesus Christ, making an eternal difference.

If you have accepted Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, but have been very lukewarm in your spiritual walk with Him, you need to immediately ask Him for forgiveness and for renewal. He will instantly forgive you, and fill your heart with the joy of the Holy Spirit. Then, you need to begin a daily walk of prayer and personal Bible Study.

If you have never accepted Jesus Christ as Savior, but have come to realize His reality and the approaching End of the Age, and want to accept His FREE Gift of Eternal Life, you can also do so now, in the privacy of your home. Once you accept Him as Savior, you are spiritually Born Again, and are as assured of Heaven as if you were already there. Then, you can rest assured that the Kingdom of Antichrist will not touch you spiritually. If you would like to become Born Again, turn to our Salvation Page now.

We hope you have been blessed by this ministry, which seeks to educate and warn people, so that they can see the coming New World Order -- Kingdom of Antichrist -- in their daily news.

God bless you.
